

Perverting Justice: Law, Crime, Justice and the Perverse / Critical Perspectives 2024, May 13 to 15, The University of Winnipeg

Monday, May 13: Preconference Social Activity

Bike tour: 12:00 Noon, departing from Plain Bicycle (at the Forks). Please RSVP before April 28: CJIS@winnipeg.ca

Monday, May 13: Perverting Justice / Critical Perspectives Formal Program DAY 1

TIME	Convocation Hall, 2nd Floor Wesley Hall
6:00-6:30 PM	Doors open
6:30-7:00 PM	Welcome to Territory and Opening Remarks
7:00-8:00 PM	Featured Speaker: Dr. Gary Kinsman, Laurentian University:                      “Against Normality, For Perversity: Against                      Carceral Injustice, For Perverse Abolition.” Introduction: Leon Laidlaw, Carleton
8:00-9:30 PM	Welcome Reception With refreshments

Tuesday, May 14: Perverting Justice / Critical Perspectives Formal Program DAY 2

TIME	Convocation Hall, 2 nd Floor Wesley Hall	2M70 2 nd Floor Manitoba Hall
8:00-8:30 AM	Coffee
8:30-9:45 AM	PANEL 1.1: Prison Perversity #1  Chair: Michael Weinrath, UWinnipeg <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. A Scoping Review of The Agricultural Prison Industry, James Gacek, Jocelyne Lemoine, Breeann Phillips, and Rosemary Ricciardelli</li> <li>2. Morbid Matters: Medical Assistance in Dying in Federal Corrections, James Gacek, Richard Jochelson, Lauren Corcoran, and Marisa Ranieri</li> <li>3. Of Boredom and Havoc: Correctional Officers and Meaning Making, Dale Spencer and Rosemary Ricciardelli</li> <li>4. Developing Social Work Best Practices for Survivors of Solitary Confinement, Dave Cavana</li> </ol>	PANEL 1.2: Perverse Policing  Chair: Bronwyn Dobchuk-Land, UWinnipeg <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Redactions as Enactments of Perversion, Fadi Ennab</li> <li>2. The War at Home: Counter-Insurgency and Domestic War in Contemporary Urban Policing, Ted Rutland</li> <li>3. Playing the Blame Game: Strategies for Effectively Organizing Municipal Defunding Campaigns, Inez Hillel and Trixie Maybituin</li> <li>4. Decolonizing Abolitionist Perspectives on Community Safety: A Case Study of Winnipeg’s Bear Clan Patrol, Leon Laidlaw and Natasha Stirrett</li> </ol>
10:00-10:45 AM	Featured Speaker: Dr. Viviane Saleh-Hanna, University of Massachusetts, Dartmouth: “A Critical Ethnography of Crime as it Lives Within the Perverse Thought Patterns of Criminology” Introduction: Bronwyn Dobchuk-Land, UWinnipeg

11:00 AM-12:00 PM	PANEL 2.1: Carceral Cultures of the Perverse Punitive Injustice System  Chair: Leon Laidlaw, Carleton <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Carceral Canines and Perversions of Memory: Police Service Dogs, Sacrifice and Memorialization in the Museum, El Jones, Justin Piché and Kevin Walby</li> <li>2. Perverse Memories: Game Player Reflections on Prison-themed Escape Rooms, Kevin Walby, Justin Piché, and Linda Mussell</li> <li>3. Carceral Culture and Prison-themed Escape Rooms: Preliminary Findings from Fieldwork in Canada, Justin Piché, Kevin Walby, and Linda Mussell</li> </ol>	PANEL 2.2: Spaces of Transformative Justice  Chair: Katharina Maier, UWinnipeg <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Transformative Justice Practices within Federal Prisons Designated for Women: Strength, Solidarity, and Resistance, Rachel Fayter, PhD Candidate, Criminology, University of Ottawa</li> <li>2. Planting Seeds for Transformative Justice in Community Organizing, Jeffrey Bradley, PhD Candidate, Law and Legal Studies, Carleton University</li> <li>3. Transformative Housing Justice and the Home as Space of Abolition, Sarah Gelbard, PhD Post-doctoral fellow, Criminology, University of Ottawa</li> </ol>
12:00-12:45 PM	LUNCH – SPONSORED BY CIJS
12:45-2:00 PM	PANEL 3.1: Perverse Representations  Chair: Meg Lonergan, Carleton <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Crime in Whose Eyes? Pokot (Spoor) and Justice for Non-Human and Human Animals, Pauline Greenhill and Cristina Bacchilega</li> <li>2. Sacrifice Zones: Uncanny Geography and Spectrality in Butcher's Block, Steven Kohm and Meg Lonergan</li> </ol>	PANEL 3.2: Harm, Sex, and Justice  Chair: Amelia Curran, UWinnipeg <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Locating Survivors' Justice Needs in Post-Secondary Responses to Sexual Violence, Amanda Nelund and Joanne Minaker</li> <li>2. Social Danger and Sexual Perversion in 'Catholic' Italy, Maria Di Maggio</li> <li>3. Responses to Campus Sexual Violence: Alternative Forms of Justice, Nell Perry and Tamara Humphrey</li> </ol>

	3. Transformation and Culpability: The Quarry's Playable Horror Film and Questions of Justice, Christina Fawcett 4. Deepfake Porn as “Perverted Dilemma”: A Rejoinder, Lara Karaian	4. Perverse Heterosexuality and Queerness in Twentieth-Century Canada, Aidan Blockley
2:15-3:00 PM	Featured Speaker: Dr. Irina Ceric, University of Windsor, Faculty of Law: “Prefiguration as Perversion: Legal Defence and Radical Movements” Introduction: Katharina Maier, UWinnipeg
3:15-4:15 PM	PANEL 4.1: Perverse Laws Chair: Lara Karaian, Carleton 1. An Intentional Perversion of Law? Considering Intentionality in Police, Judicial, and Public Safety Framings of Intimate Image Distribution among Youth as Child Pornography, Alexa Dodge 2. Whatever Happened to Obscenity Law? Or the Present-Absence in the Online Harms Bill, Meg Lonergan 3. The Historical, Perverse, Prohibition of Wilful Death: Voluntary Death, Felo de Se, and Suicide, Garrett Lecoq	PANEL 4.2: Perverse Exclusions Chair: Steven Kohm, UWinnipeg 1. “People are going to see us and gawk at us, you should see the comments”: Homelessness Panic and Vigilantism on Social Media, Dari Enkhtugs, Marta-Marika Urbanik, Katharina Maier, and Carolyn Greene 2. Proving Fear: The Ethics of Asylum Seeking, Arturo Esquivel and Shoshana Paget 3. The Perversion of Charity: Canadian Tax Credits for Genocide in Gaza, Miles Howe

4:30-5:30 PM	PANEL 5.1: Perverse Cities Chair: Kevin Walby, UWinnipeg <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. ‘Not Just Another Overdose’: Unmasking Community Members’ Perceptions of and Experiences with ‘Hotshot’ Murders, Nader Chebayeb, Carolyn Greene, Katharina Maier, and Marta-Marika Urbanik</li> <li>2. The Carousel of Complaints: Anti-Encampment Policing in Mid-Size Canadian Cities, Marcus Sibley</li> <li>3. Everyday Abolition: Non-Institutional Interventions in Criminalization, Sloane Mulligan</li> </ol>	PANEL 5.2: Prison Perversity #2 Chair: James Gacek, URegina <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Investigating Provincial and Territorial Correctional Worker Wellness: The Effects of COVID, Decarceration, and Working in Carceral Environments, Rosemary Ricciardelli, Tamara Taillieu, Matthew Johnston, Sahar Dorniani, R. Nicholas Carleton, and Tracie Afifi</li> <li>2. “This is a stepping stone towards reconciliation ... but at the same time, for some guys it doesn't work”: How Indigenous Correctional Program Officers in Canadian Federal Prisons Understand and Experience “Rehabilitation Work”, Mark Norman, Rosemary Ricciardelli, Mark Jones, Micheal Taylor, and Christine Genest</li> <li>3. Determining the Ratio of Male to Female Prison Officers Working in Federal Prisons in Canada: A Mixed Methods Study, Rosemary Ricciardelli</li> </ol>
5:30-9:00 PM BOOK LAUNCH AND SOCIAL EVENT – University Club, 4th Floor, Wesley Hall  Food, drinks and lively conversation (Cash Bar).

Wednesday, May 15: Perverting Justice / Critical Perspectives Formal Program DAY 3

TIME	Convocation Hall, 2 nd Floor Wesley Hall	2M70 2 nd Floor Manitoba Hall
8:00-8:30 AM	Coffee
8:30-9:45 AM	PANEL 6.1: Perverse Punishment: The Prison and Beyond  Chair: Irina Ceric, UWindsor 1. Periods in Prison: Menstruation, Perverse Punishment and Resistance, Alicia Horton and Lisa Smith 2. Parole-for-Life as the Sisyphean Task: Key Findings of a Qualitative Analysis, Nyki Kish 3. Beyond the TCPS 2: Naming Ethical Obligations in Community Engaged Research with Criminalized Peoples, Nyki Kish, Tamara Humphrey, Cathee Porter, Patrick Falle, and Audrey Yap 4. Fear and Frustration: Emerging Findings from the Stories of Re-entry Project, Cathee Porter, Patrick Falle, Nyki Kish, Tamara Humphrey, and Audrey Yap	PANEL 6.2: Theorizing and Contesting Criminal Justice  Chair: Kelly Gorkoff, UWinnipeg 1. Shifting Justice: Exploring Canadian Ideologies on Criminal Justice and their Theoretical Approaches, Mythreyi Vijayakulan and Conor D. Columb 2. Dehumanization and De-Worlding: Conceptualizing Disconnection in a Post-Anthropocentric Genocide Studies, Wanda June and Andrew Woolford 3. Drugs, Politics, and Perversion: Towards a Comparative Theory of Drug Policy Failure Across North America and Around the World, Steven Hayle 4. How to Fight Perverse Policy in Criminal Justice, David Dorson

10:00-10:45 AM	Featured Speaker: Dr. Bill McClanahan, University of Tennessee at Knoxville: “Perversity, Pleasure, and Police: Visual Economies of Cops and Cruelty” Introduction: Steven Kohm, UWinnipeg
11:00 AM-12:00 PM	PANEL 7.1: Perverse Colonialism and Racism  Chair: Tom Hooper, York <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Manufacturing of Indigeneity as Perversion, Caitlin Melissa Damm, Ekas Kaur, and Marcella Siqueira Cassiano</li> <li>2. Race, Hypersexualization and Erotic Capital in Sex Work, Julie Ham</li> <li>3. Narratives of Marginality and Marginalisation in the Era of Digitalisation among the Basarwa (Indigenous) Peoples of Botswana, Lesedi Mashumba</li> </ol>	PANEL 7.2: Roundtable on How to Abolish Prisons: Lessons from the Movement Against Imprisonment  Chair: Bronwyn Dobchuk-Land, UWinnipeg Rachel Herzing, Justin Piché and Bar None
12:00-1:00 PM	LUNCH – SPONSORED BY CIJS
1:00-2:00 PM	PANEL 8.1: No More Deaths in Custody  Chair: Bronwyn Dobchuk-Land, UWinnipeg <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Legal Strategies to Address Accountability: Experiences of the Soleiman Faqiri Inquest  Lydia Dobson and Alexandria Bonney</li> </ol>	PANEL 8.2: Roundtable: Participatory Action Research (PAR) and Community Engaged Research (CER) as Strategic Acts of Resistance  Chair: TBA Cathee Porter, Audrey Yap, Nyki Kish, Patrick Falle, and Tamara Humphrey

	2. Tracking Deaths in Custody from the Ground Up: Developing the Prisoners' Justice Day Online Memorial, Jeffrey Bradley 3. Moving Beyond Numbers: Working with Families to Call for Change, Lindsay Jennings and Alexander McClelland
2:15-3:00 PM	Featured Speaker: Tom Hooper, York University: "Defending the Found-In Follies: How the Right to Privacy Committee Resisted the 1981 Toronto Bathhouse Raids" Introduction: Alex Tepperman, UWinnipeg
3:15-4:30 PM	PANEL 9.1: Roundtable: Cooptation and Perversion of Justice in Community-Based Safety Planning Chair: Leon Laidlaw, Carleton 1. Daniel Waycik 2. Quinn Saretsky, 3. Bronwyn Dobchuk-Land
Post-Conference Dinner/Social Event at X-Cues, 551 Sargent Ave (https://www.xcuescafelounge.com/)  5:00 PM – Food and lively post-conference conversation (Cash Bar)  Please RSVP NO LATER THAN May 8: CIJS@uwinnipeg.ca		