

Educating Justice Conference

University of Winnipeg
THUR University Club, 4th Floor Wesley Hall
FRI & SAT Room 2M70 (2nd floor Manitoba Hall, room 70)
Hosted by the Centre for Interdisciplinary Justice Studies

DAY ONE THURSDAY, MAY 8TH 2014

- 5:00-6:00 Welcome Reception (University Club, 4th Floor Wesley Hall)
Complementary wine, cheese, and appetizers served.
- 6:00-7:30 PLENARY PANEL (University Club, 4th Floor Wesley Hall)
From Genesis to Revelation:
A roundtable discussion of the field of criminal justice in Canada
- Tammy Landau, Department of Criminology, Ryerson University
Hirsch Greenberg, Justice Studies, University of Regina
Doug King, Department of Justice Studies, Mount Royal University
- Kelly Gorkoff, Department of Criminal Justice, University of Winnipeg
Moderator

DAY TWO FRIDAY, MAY 9TH 2014

All sessions in Room 2M70, 2nd floor Manitoba Hall

- 8:30 – 9:45 Education Across Disciplines
- Courtney Waid-Lindberg, Department of Sociology, Northern State University
Broadening One's Role When Working in a Multidisciplinary Department
- Richard Jochelson, Department of Criminal Justice, University of Winnipeg
Teaching Law to Criminal Justice Students
- Paul Lawrie, History, University of Winnipeg
Pedagogical Reflections on Teaching US Criminal Justice History to Canadian Students
- Lisa Kitt & Priscilla Ready, Department of Criminology at Kwantlen Polytechnic University
Empathetic Understanding and Experiential Education
- Steven Kohm, Department of Criminal Justice, University of Winnipeg
Session Chair

10:00-11:00

Educating in Justice Institutions

Tracy Booth, Elizabeth Fry Society of Manitoba
Kate Kehler, John Howard Society of Manitoba
Kirsten Wurmman, Manitoba Library Association Prison Library Committee

Kevin Walby, Department of Criminal Justice, University of Winnipeg
Session Chair

11:15-12:30

Locating the Field: History and Contemporary Positions

Kelly Gorkoff, Department of Criminal Justice, University of Winnipeg
Marketizing Liberal Arts Education – The Case of Criminal Justice

Sean Parys, Department of Criminal Justice, University of Winnipeg
An Analysis of the Canadian Journal of Criminology and Criminal Justice, 1958-1983

Peter Kraska, School of Justice Studies, Eastern Kentucky University

12:30-1:30

LUNCH (sandwiches provided)

1:30-2:30

PLENARY PANEL

Toward Creating an Informed Electorate: Understanding Criminal Justice Policy by Looking at Current Issues in the Context of Our Past

Anthony N. Doob, Centre for Criminology and Sociolegal Studies, University of Toronto

Introduced by Rick Linden, Department of Sociology, University of Manitoba

2:45-4:00

Administering Justice Departments

Wade Deisman, Department of Criminology, Kwantlen Polytechnic University
What it Means to be a Polytechnic

Mike Trump, Director, Justice Institute of British Columbia
JIBC Programs on Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice

Michael Weinrath, Criminal Justice, University of Winnipeg
Building a Criminal Justice Department at University of Winnipeg

Michael Young, Justice Studies, Royal Roads University
The Justice Studies Program at Royal Roads University

4:15-5:30

New Developments and Prospects in Justice Education

Aaron Doyle, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Carleton University
Mentoring Graduate Students in Public Criminology: The Criminalization and Punishment Education Project

Christopher Howell, Department of Criminology, Kwantlen Polytechnic University
Anarchist Criminology: A Content Analysis

Jeff Shantz, Department of Criminology, Kwantlen Polytechnic University
Against (and within) the Edu-Factory: The Critical Criminology Working Group and Anarchist Pedagogy

DAY
THREE

SATURDAY MAY 10TH 2014

All sessions in Room 2M70, 2nd floor Manitoba Hall

9:00-10:30

Exchanging Justice Education

Jaqueline McLeod Rogers, Rhetoric, Writing and Communication, University of Winnipeg

Judith Harris, Urban and Inner-City Studies, University of Winnipeg
Developing Literacy, Educational, and Co-op Opportunities for Justice Involved Women

Wade Deisman, Department of Criminology, Kwantlen Polytechnic University
Jane Miller Ashton, Kwantlen Polytechnic University
Inside-Out at the Local Level: Challenges, Opportunities, Lessons

Simone Davis, Coordinator, Inside-Out Canada
Inside-Out at the National Level: Challenges, Opportunities, Lessons

10:45-11:45

Practitioner Roundtable: Balancing Theory and Practice in Post-Secondary Criminal Justice Education

Sandy Wilson and Vanessa Chopyk, RCMP
Mark LaFreniere, Omar Siddiqui, and Elana Sokolov, Manitoba Justice

12:00-1:00

Student Roundtable: Past Students Roundtable: Reflections on Criminal Justice Education and its (Ir)Relevance to Practice and Advanced Studies

Moderator: Silvana Romano (Consumer Protection Office)

Panelists: Diego Contador (CO1, Headingly Corrections)

Alison Carrey (Graduate Student, York University)

Tristan Dreilich (Mental Health Resource Developer, Canadian Mental Health Assoc.)

Renato Mamucud (Student, Faculty of Law, University of Manitoba)

Anna Sokolinski (Community Corrections, Manitoba Justice)

Mylene Inocencio (Graduate Student, University of Guelph)